

University Scholarships and Awards

Gertrude A. McCord Award

Phi Kappa Phi is a national honor society that recognizes an Outstanding Junior from each college. The student selected for the Junior Award must be in the upper 7.5 percent (minimum 3.5 GPA) of the College's junior class and also have made a professional contribution or have been of significant service to the University. Two students were selected for the Outstanding Junior Award from the College of Applied Human Sciences and were awarded the Gertrude A. McCord Award in the amount of $500 each.

Jenna Coleman

Jenna Coleman is a Health and Exercise Science student and is the past recipient of the Sons of Italy Scholarship and the Yates Scholarship. She participates in the Presidential Leadership Program and serves as an ASCSU senator, representing the college. She volunteers with CSUnity and is a member of the Dean's Leadership Council. Her future plans include becoming a surgical nurse.

Kayla Crowder

Kayla Crowder is a Social Work student and is the former recipient of the HABIC Scholarship and the School of Social Work Scholarship. She volunteers for Ram Welcome and participates in intramural sports. While attending school, she also works for the Resources for Disabled Students Office and plans to continue her education after graduation by seeking a Master's degree.

The following two students have been listed in Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges as a result of their nomination for the Phi Kappa Phi Outstanding Junior Award.

Lydia Linke, Family and Consumer Sciences

Katie Provorse, Food Science and Human Nutrition

Delano F. Scott Scholarship

The Delano F. Scott Scholarship is presented to male undergraduates with a minimum sophomore standing, pursuing any major in the College of Applied Human Sciences. The selection is based in part on financial need. This year's award is for $2600.

Sean Creeden

Sean Creeden has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a past recipient of the Ludlow Scholarship and Saccomanno Scholarship. He is a member of the Pre-Medical Club and the Dean's Leadership Council and volunteers with Special Olympics. Sean plans to pursue a career as a practicing physician and also participate in global health programs.

University
Students
Scholarship

The University Students Scholarship is presented to undergraduates with a minimum 3.0 GPA who are enrolled in an undergraduate degree program and are active in campus and/or community service organizations. This year's award is for $1,000.

Lydia Linke

Lydia Linke, a Family and Consumer Sciences student, is a former recipient of the Lydia Hoffmann Morrison Scholarship and the Alice Ford Scholarship. She is a member of the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences and serves as vice president of Global Community, an organization she co-founded. Lydia plans to continue her education after graduation in the Marriage and Family Therapy Graduate Program.

Interdepartmental

Marian Adams Graduate Fellowship

The Marian Adams Graduate Fellowship was established in 1989 by Mrs. Adams. It is awarded to an entering graduate student majoring in Human Nutrition or Human Development and Family Studies, who exhibits commitment to professional work. This year's award of $2,500 is shared between two students.

April Sifford

April Sifford is a Master's student majoring in Food Science and Nutrition. She formerly attended the University of Iowa where she was awarded a Bachelor of Science degree in Accounting. Her volunteer activities include outpatient nutrition at McKee Medical Center, Cans around the Oval, and Program Energy. April would like to work with a state or local agency in Colorado to continue to target obesity trends and instill healthy living practices in youth and families.

Jamie Wensink

Jamie Wensink received a Bachelor of Science degree in Family Studies and Psychology from Central Michigan University before coming to Colorado State to pursue a Master's degree in Human Development and Family Studies. While attending Central Michigan, she received the Multicultural Advancement Scholarship and was a member of the Family Relations Council. Jamie's career goals include continuing her education to pursue a doctorate degree and ultimately becoming a college professor.

---

"There is nothing more rewarding than teaching the next generation."

Jamie Wensink

---

Students First Scholarship

The College of Applied Human Sciences Students First Scholarship is awarded to students in the College with high scholastic standing. Six students share this year's $12,000 award.

Haley Craven

Haley Craven came to Colorado State from Mission Hills, California, where she received the Inyo Academic Excellence Award and participated in several community service activities. A Nutrition and Food Science student, she plans a career as a registered dietitian after receiving her undergraduate degree.

Bethany Davis

An Interior Design student, Bethany Davis attended high school in Moscow, Idaho. She was active in many activities including the Music Festival where she received a gold medal and is a member of the National Honor Society. She also participated in drama and writing contests and plans a career of being an interior designer.

Alicia Domsky

Alicia Domsky is a Health and Exercise Science student who plans to pursue a medical degree after graduation. She would like to work with an athletic team as a medical doctor. A native of Williamsport, Maryland, she was named to the National Honor Society, was active in sports, and volunteered with the Red Cross while attending high school there.

Jennifer Pfohl	Jennifer Pfohl attended high school in Downers Grove, Illinois, where she received several honors including the Silver Math Award and being selected as an Illinois State Scholar. A Nutrition and Food Science student, she would like to pursue a career where she can teach people proper nutrition.
Megan Rossman	An Interior Design student, Megan Rossman attended high school in Atkinson, Nebraska. She was a member of the band, Family Career and Community Leaders of America (FCCLA), and volunteered with the Good Samaritan Center. Megan would like to pursue a career in interior design and ultimately own an interior design business.
Morgan Wilson	Morgan Wilson is a Health and Exercise Science student and plans a career as a physical therapist. She attended high school in Holt, Michigan, where she was active in swimming, lacrosse, and served as a peer advisor.
Pearle E. Betts Graduate Scholarship	The Pearle E. Betts Graduate Scholarship was established when Ms. Betts, a 1939 graduate of Colorado State University, bequeathed her entire estate to the University. Ms. Betts earned an M.S. degree in Vocational Homemaking and had a long career teaching high school Home Economics classes. This year's award is for $3,750 and is shared by three students.
Laura Gilsdorf	Laura Gilsdorf is a Food Science and Nutrition Master's student. She received a Bachelor degrees in Food Service Management and Culinary Nutrition from Johnson and Wales University before coming to Colorado State. While an undergraduate student, she was a former recipient of the Presidential Leadership Scholarship. Laura volunteers with Program Energy and plans to pursue a career as a nutrition counselor.
Nai Chieh Tien	A Master's student majoring in Human Development and Family Studies, Nai Chieh Tien received a Bachelor of Science degree from Fu Jen Catholic University in Taiwan. While attending school in Taiwan, she was active in music and participated in several national competitions. After receiving a graduate degree, Nai Chieh plans to pursue a career as a marriage and family therapist.
Gunjan Vora	Gunjan Vora came to Colorado State to pursue a Master's degree in Design and Merchandising after receiving a undergraduate degree in her native India. She was awarded several honors for participating in music and painting competitions and was a member of the Textile Association of India. After receiving a Master's degree, she plans to pursue a doctoral degree.
Gail Farthing Brown Memorial Scholarship	The Gail Farthing Brown Memorial Scholarship was established by Gail's husband, Clarence Brown. Gail was a 1944 Home Economics graduate, majoring in Dietetics. Gail met Clarence while attending Colorado A &amp; M, and all four of their sons graduated from Colorado State. This scholarship is awarded to junior or senior students majoring in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* major, with selection based on a minimum 3.0 GPA. This year's award is $1,425.
Katherine Blatter	Katherine Blatter is a Nutrition and Food Science student and is a former recipient of the CSU Distinguished Scholar Award. She is a member of the Pre-Physical Therapy Club and National Society of Collegiate Scholars. She volunteers with CSUnity and plans a career as a physical therapist in an out-patient clinic.

Velma Borschell Budin Scholarship The Velma Borschell Budin Scholarship was established in 1983 by Mrs. Budin, a 1925 graduate of Home Economics. It is an award for $1,350. Recipients must be seniors or graduate students majoring in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* area. Selection criteria include service contributions and other factors consistent with the philosophy of Family and Consumer Sciences.

Lauren Bower

Lauren Bower is a former recipient of the Josephine Thimmig and Melvin and Margaret Hazaleus Scholarships. She is a Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher Licensure student who plans to teach at the high school level while working on a Master's degree. She would eventually like to teach Human Development and Family Studies at the collegiate level. Lauren volunteers with Alternative Break and Ram Welcome.

Chamberlain Family Graduate Scholarship The Chamberlain Family Graduate Scholarship is given in honor of the Logan Chamberlain family. Logan received his Ph.D. in Human Resource Development in the College of Applied Human Sciences. The $1,175 award is given to graduate students in any major in the College of Applied Human Sciences, who demonstrate financial need, have a minimum 3.0 GPA, and are thesis or doctoral candidates working on research with a practical application. Non-traditional aged students are encouraged to apply.

Tobi Delong-Hamilton

Tobi Delong-Hamilton is a former recipient of the Nancy Hartley Scholarship and the Yeager Memorial Scholarship. She is an Education Ph.D. student pursuing a doctorate in Education and Human Resource Studies. She volunteer with Grandparents Raising Grandchildren and is a member of the Council on Social Work Education. She plans to become a social work teacher as well as having a private practice specializing in infants and children.

Columbine Health Systems Graduate Scholarship The Columbine Health Systems Graduate Scholarship is given by Mr. J. Robert Wilson, owner of Columbine Health Systems, a locally owned and operated health system. Awards are given to graduate students who are interested in a career in the field of aging. Recipients must retain a minimum 3.0 GPA and show University or community service. This year's award is for $8,000 and is shared by four students.

Angela Condit

Angela Condit is a Master's student in Social Work and plans a career working with the older adult population. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Work from Colorado State and while an undergraduate student was named to the Dean's Honor Roll and the Golden Key National Honor Society.

Courtney Smith

An Occupational Therapy student, Courtney Smith received an undergraduate degree in Human Development and Family Studies from Colorado State. Her volunteer activities include the Boys and Girls Club and Meals on Wheels. Courtney works at an assisted living facility while attending school and plans a career working with older adults.

Susan Guritz

Susan Guritz is a former recipient of the Steele Scholarship and is a member of the Psi Chi National Honor Society. An Occupational Therapy student, she plans to become a registered and licensed occupational therapist and return to her home state of Alaska where she may serve others in her community, particularly those who are older adults.

Hannah Vaughan

Hannah Vaughan received a Bachelor of Science degree in Human Development and Family Studies from Colorado State and is pursuing a Master's degree in Marriage and Family Therapy. While an undergraduate student, she was named to the Dean's Honor Roll and was a recipient of the Columbine Undergraduate Scholarship. She plans to become a marriage and family therapist.

Columbine
Health Systems
Undergraduate
Scholarship

The Columbine Health Systems Undergraduate Scholarship is given by Mr. J. Robert Wilson, owner of Columbine Health Systems, a locally owned and operated health system. Awards are given to undergraduate students who are enrolled in the Gerontology Interdisciplinary Studies Program. Recipients must retain a minimum 3.0 GPA and show University or community service. This year's award of $7,000 is shared by seven students.

Sara Griffin

Sara Griffin is a member of the President's Leadership Program and the Mortar Board Honor Society. She has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and volunteers as a key academic peer mentor and with CSUnity. Sara, a Human Development and Family Studies student, plans to continue her education by going to graduate school and pursuing a degree in occupational therapy.

Glenda Gurley

Glenda Gurley is an Interior Design student who plans a career designing nursing homes, assisted living facilities, and hospitals. She is a former recipient of the Provost's Scholarship and the University Undergraduate Institutional Grant. She serves as a resident assistant for one of the dorms and is a member of the American Society of Interior Design Association Student Chapter.

Erin Knop

A Human Development and Family Studies student, Erin Knop volunteers with her church and with Elderhaus. She plans to pursue a career working with the older adult population in a retirement home setting where she can make a difference in the lives of the elderly.

Jennifer Little

Jennifer Little is a Human Development and Family Studies student who plans a career working with older, active adults in a senior center or retirement community setting. She has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars. She volunteers at the Fort Collins Senior Center and Elderhaus where she was named volunteer of the month.

Klint Reiber

Klint Reiber is a former recipient of the Columbine Undergraduate Scholarship and volunteers with a high school youth group. He formerly served as a resident assistant in one of the dorms on campus and manages a landscaping and construction business while attending school. His future plans are to help redefine elder care by building and operating a facility for older adults.

Chelsea Turner

A Social Work student, Chelsea Turner is a former recipient of the Columbine Scholarship and volunteers with the CSU Special Needs Swim team and Elderhaus. She plans to continue her education by pursuing a Master's degree in Social Work where she can work with the adult population.

Lauren Vogel

Lauren Vogel plans to pursue a career as a long term care administrator where she can work with families to ensure that their loved ones receive excellent care. She is a Human Development and Family Studies student who volunteers with several local schools as well as working on a research project regarding family care giving and the effects of respite care.

Elizabeth Dyar Gifford Scholarship The Elizabeth Dyar Gifford Scholarship was established by friends of Dean Gifford in honor of her 34 years of service at Colorado State. Dean Gifford passed away in 1997 and bequeathed part of her estate to the endowment. This $14,500 scholarship is awarded to junior, senior, or graduate students majoring in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* field. Selection is based on leadership in campus, community, and professional activities. This year the award is divided among five students.

David Anderson David Anderson is a Family and Consumer Sciences student and is the former recipient of the First Generation Scholarship and the General Music Scholarship. He is a member of the Campus Crusade for Christ band and serves as resident assistant at one of the dorms on campus. His career goal is to be able to instill family values into young teens.

Janine Angello An Occupational Therapy student, Janine Angello received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology and Italian before coming to Colorado State. She serves as president of the Student Occupational Therapy Association and volunteers for a family shelter in Denver. She plans a career in the pediatric occupational therapy field.

Laurie Erickson Laurie Erickson received a Bachelor of Science degree in Nutrition from Colorado State and is pursuing a Master's degree in Food Science and Human Nutrition. She is a former recipient of the Tarr Scholarship and the Blake Scholarship and was named to the Dean's Honor Roll. While attending school, she works as a graduate teaching assistant and plans to become a registered dietitian, pursuing a community nutrition education career.

Bondina Kirkpatrick Bondina Kirkpatrick is a Human Development and Family Studies student and plans to attend graduate school to pursue a Master's degree in Occupational Therapy, working with pediatrics. She serves as president of the Pre-OT Club and volunteers with her church. While attending school, she also works for the Early Childhood Center.

Nicole Martin Nicole Martin is a former recipient of the International Programs Scholarship and the Northern Colorado Interior Design Guild Scholarship. An Interior Design student, she studied at the Florence University of the Arts in Italy last spring and participates in recreational sports. She is a member of the CSU Swing Dance Society and Partners. After graduation, she plans to enter the hospitality industry with a company that focuses on sustainability and green design.

Donald E. and Esther L. Harbison Memorial Scholarship The Donald E. and Esther L. Harbison Memorial Scholarship is given by their daughter, Dona Hildebrand, and her late husband, Floyd, in memory of her parents who graduated from Colorado A. & M. in 1926 – Esther with a degree in Home Economics and Donald in Forestry. Esther was also a member of Omicron Nu, the Home Economics honorary society. This scholarship is awarded to a student in a Family and Consumer Sciences related* major who is a non-traditional or transfer student, and demonstrates financial need. This year's award is $1,525.

Nancy Maxwell

Nancy Maxwell is an Apparel and Merchandising student who works for CSU Apartment Life as a graphic designer while attending school, designing promotional brochures. After graduation, she would like to work for a designer and eventually create and promote her own designs. She is particularly interested in designing women's dresses.

Melvin and Margaret Bennington Hazaleus Scholarship

The Melvin and Margaret Bennington Hazaleus Scholarship was established by Margaret in 1989. Margaret received a Bachelor's degree in 1941 and a Master's in 1970 from Colorado State. An emeritus professor and assistant dean of the former Home Economics/Human Resource Sciences College, (now the College of Applied Human Sciences), Mrs. Hazaleus passed away in 1998. Awards are for students in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* field. This year's award is $3,750.

Tahlia Fischer

A Nutrition and Food Science student, Tahlia Fischer has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and volunteered for the Progeria Research Foundation, an organization that raises money for finding a cure for progeria, a disease that afflicts children. She has also volunteered for horse rescue organizations. She looks forward to a career in nutrition.

Amber Koepke

Amber Koepke is a former recipient of the Partnership Award and is a member of Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society and the Fashion Group International Student Chapter. She is also a member of Delta Delta Delta Sorority and participates in many of their service projects. An Apparel Design and Production student, Amber plans to work for the Disney Corporation designing costumes for Disney Parks and Resorts after graduation.

Human Resource Sciences Alumni Scholarship

The Human Resource Sciences Alumni Scholarship was established by the HRS Alumni Council with gifts from friends and alumni of the College of Human Resource Sciences (now the College of Applied Human Sciences). The $1,625 scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate or graduate student majoring in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* field, with selection related to professional promise.

Megan Ruder

Megan Ruder is an Occupational Therapy student who received an undergraduate degree from Colorado State. She is a former recipient of the Durning Scholarship and serves as co-president of Pi Theta Epsilon and secretary of the Student Occupational Therapy Association. Her long-term career goal is to become a practicing occupational therapist in the pediatric population.

Kotsiopoulos Memorial Scholarship

The Kotsiopoulos Memorial Scholarship is presented to a junior or senior in the College of Applied Human Sciences who has documented "people helping people" volunteer service or employment. Preference is given to Design and Merchandising or Occupational Therapy students, with financial need considered. This year the award is $1,125.

Lacey Winter

Lacey Winter volunteers for CSU Special Needs Swim and is a caregiver for the Shetek S.O.S. Camp for individuals with developmental disabilities. A Human Development and Family Studies student, she is a member of the Pre-OT Club and plans to continue her education after graduation by attending graduate school.

Helen F. McHugh
Graduate Fellowship

The Helen F. McHugh Graduate Fellowship was established by Dr. McHugh's friends and colleagues in honor of her service as Dean of Home Economics/ Human Resource Sciences from 1975 to 1986. The $1,500 award is given to graduate students in a Family and Consumer-related* field in support of their approved research paper and creative activity.

Kyle Burger

Kyle Burger is a Ph.D. Nutritional Sciences student who received a Master's degree from San Diego State University and a Bachelor of Science degree from the University of Nevada-Reno. He is a member of the American Dietetic Association and the American Society of Nutrition. His next educational step is to pursue a post-doctoral fellowship while conducting research in eating behavior and ultimately becoming a professor at a university.

Moore/Poudre
Valley Hospital
Scholarship

The Moore/Poudre Valley Hospital Scholarship, established by Mr. and Mrs. C.G. Moore, is available for students who are taking at least five credits at Colorado State and are employed at Poudre Valley Health System. This year's award of $1,700 is shared by two students.

Megan Edwards

Megan Edwards is pursuing a Ph.D. in Education and Human Resource Studies. She formerly received a Bachelor's degree from Western Michigan University and a Master's degree from Wayne State University. She is currently conducting research on caregivers of Alzheimer patients and the effect it has on family dynamics. Megan plans to pursue a career of teaching occupational therapy at the collegiate level.

Rebecca Smyser

Rebecca Smyser is a Social Work student who received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Drake University before returning to school to pursue a second degree. She is the mother of three sons and volunteers at their schools while working at Poudre Valley Hospital. Rebecca plans to continue her education by pursuing a Master's of Social Work degree from Colorado State.

Redmond Family
Scholarship

The Redmond Family Scholarship was established in memory of Hayes and Helen Redmond and daughter, Madelon, by their children, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and siblings. Madelon Redmond Wills graduated from Colorado State University in 1958 with a Bachelor's degree in Nutrition. The scholarship is awarded to a full-time student in Applied Human Sciences. This year the award is for $1,000.

Rachel Trujillo

Rachel Trujillo is a Health and Exercise Science student and is the former recipient of the Marchi Athletic Scholarship and the Boulder Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship. She is a member of the Colorado Eagles dance team and performs at all home hockey games. She also volunteers with the Adult Fitness Program as well as many community activities. Rachel plans a career working in the health care field, especially with overweight and obese children.

Florence R.
Shepardson
Scholarship

The Florence R. Shepardson Scholarship was established from Mr. Charles Shepardson's estate in memory of his first wife. Awarded to undergraduates in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* area, the scholarship requires applicants to have a 3.00 minimum GPA and be of good moral character and sound citizenship. The $2,950 award is divided between two students.

Joanna Kelley

Joanna Kelley has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and works as a resident assistant at one of the dorms on campus while attending school. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi Sorority and participates in many of their community service projects. A Family and Consumer Sciences student, Joanna participated in a mission trip and plans to pursue a career as a middle school Family and Consumer Sciences teacher.

---

"I want to be able to help students feel better about themselves and help them get through difficult situations."

Joanna Kelley

---

Mariah Kincaid

Mariah Kincaid is a Nutrition and Food Science student and is the former recipient of the Conoco Phillips Scholarship and the Kurt Georg Scholarship. She is a member of Campus Crusade for Christ and the Premedica Pre-Health Club. After receiving an undergraduate degree, Mariah would like to continue her education in medical school and become a physician, specializing in children's medicine.

Shrake Culler
Scholarship

The Shrake Culler Scholarship was established by the Cullers as a tribute to their education at Colorado State. By 1935, Charles and Genevieve had worked their way through Colorado A&M, he pumping gas and she at a boarding home. The award is given to a graduate student with a cumulative GPA of 3.5, strong work ethic, and enthusiasm and dedication to higher education. Students in the Departments of Food Science and Human Nutrition and Design and Merchandising are eligible for this award. This year's $13,500 award is divided between two students.

Larissa Gibson

Larissa Gibson received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Mathematics from Cornell University before coming to Colorado State to pursue a Master's degree in Design and Merchandising. She has received awards at the Northern Colorado Weavers Guild fiber competition and plans to do research on the contribution of hand crafters to the production of textiles and apparel. She would like to pursue a career in the textiles industry.

Jody Swigris

Jody Swigris is a Food Science and Nutrition Master's student who received degrees from the University of Dayton and the University of Northern Colorado. She has taught mathematics at the middle school level for the past 12 years and would like to teach nutrition in local schools so she may influence positive lifestyle changes in children.

Shirley and Donald
Stanosheck
Scholarship

The Shirley and Donald Stanosheck Scholarship was established by Shirley Stanosheck, a 1943 Vocational Home Economics Education graduate. She worked as an Extension Agent and enjoyed 4-H activities. The $2,000 award is given to an undergraduate or graduate student in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* field who maintains a 3.0 GPA and has a career goal of working in Extension or in a rural Colorado area as a teacher or professional.

Christina Collins

Christina Collins, a Human Development and Family Studies Master's student, received a Bachelor of Applied Arts from Central Michigan University. She has volunteered with Big Brothers and Big Sisters and Women's Aid Services. While pursuing a career as a marriage and family therapist, Christina is also interested in becoming a family life specialist for Cooperative Extension.

Lois and Lola Tarr Scholarship The Lois and Lola Tarr Scholarship was established by Lois Tarr Smith and Lola Tarr Case, 1940 alumnae of the College of Home Economics. Mrs. Case passed away in 2003. It is awarded to a Colorado resident in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* field with a minimum 3.0 GPA. Recipients must be active in their department, University, community, or church. This award is automatically renewed if the recipient reapplies and maintains scholarship standards. Two students share this year's $3,500 award.

Aimee Morrow

An Apparel and Merchandising student, Aimee Morrow is a former recipient of the Fashion Group Scholarship and has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll. She is a member of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter and her long-term career goal is to form an apparel design firm.

Kali Palin

Kali Palin is a Human Development and Family Studies student and is a former recipient of the Tarr Scholarship. She is a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars and serves as vice president of Together Helping Excel Through Academics and Service (THETAS) Student Chapter. She plans to pursue a career as an educator working with hearing impaired students.

Lucille and Charles Terrell Memorial Award

The Lucille and Charles Terrell Memorial Award was established by Mr. Charles Terrell in memory of his wife, who was a 1939 graduate of Home Economics. It is awarded to a junior or senior, based on academic achievement, demonstrated leadership, and participation in campus activities. This year's recipient received a $450 award and her name is inscribed on a permanent plaque in the Dean's Office.

Katherine Martin

Katherine Martin graduated magna cum laude with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Social Work and German from Colorado State. She is a former recipient of the Distinguished Scholar Award and the Mimiaga Scholarship. She volunteers with her church and with Mothers of Preschoolers (MOP). Katherine plans to pursue a career working as a social worker with an international children's organization.

Jo Thimmig Memorial Scholarship

The Jo Thimmig Memorial Scholarship was established by Dr. John Thimmig in memory of his wife, who was a 1938 graduate of Home Economics. Dr. Thimmig passed away in 2003. The recipient must be a junior or senior in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* area, with selection based primarily on scholastic achievement. Four students share the $7,900 award.

Gretchen Blackmer

A Human Development and Family Studies student, Gretchen Blackmer plans to work in the field of international humanitarian relief through organizations such as UNICEF or the International Red Cross. She volunteers with the Larimer County Food Bank and the Boys and Girls Club. Gretchen is a member of UNICEF at CSU and Pinnacle National Honor Society.

Nicole Carr

Nicole Carr is a Nutrition and Food Science student and has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll. She is a member of Alpha Phi Omega Co-Ed Community Service Fraternity and volunteers with the 9News Health Fair. After graduation, she plans to attend nursing school, pursue a Master's degree, and embark on a career as a neonatal nurse practitioner.

Autumn Francis	Autumn Francis has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a member of the Golden Key Honor Society. She is a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher licensure student and plans to become a Family and Consumer Sciences secondary school teacher where she can influence and affect young people's lives.
Alexandra Swanson	Alexandra Swanson is an Apparel and Merchandising student and is the former recipient of the Gustafson Scholarship and the Presidential Award. She serves as a presidential ambassador and vice president of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter. She is also a member of the Design and Merchandising leadership team and volunteers with Cans Around the Oval. Alexandra plans to pursue a career working for a clothing company producing clothing that builds self esteem in people.
Natalie Knight Tipton/Stantec Scholarship	The Natalie Knight Tipton/Stantec Scholarship was established by Mr. R.J. Tipton in honor of his wife, Natalie, a 1916 graduate of Home Economics. It is awarded to sophomores, juniors, or seniors majoring in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* area with selection based on a minimum 3.25 GPA and activity in University/community service. This year's award of $3,000 is shared by two students.
Teghan Leutloff	Teghan Leutloff is a former recipient of the Margery Monfort Wilson Scholarship. She serves as a senator in ASCSU, representing the college, and was also active in the Key Service Community where she participated in several community activities. She is a Human Development and Family Studies student and plans a career as an early education or elementary school teacher.
Alexandra Swanson	Alexandra Swanson is an Apparel and Merchandising student and is the former recipient of the Gustafson Scholarship and the Presidential Award. She serves as a presidential ambassador and vice president of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter. She also is a member of the Design and Merchandising leadership team and volunteers with Cans Around the Oval. Alexandra plans to pursue a career working for a clothing company producing clothing that builds self esteem in people.
Alexandra Stewart and Gustave W. Voelzel, Jr. Memorial Scholarship	The Alexandra Stewart and Gustave W. Voelzel, Jr. Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of the Voelzels, who were both Colorado State alumni. The $2,825 award is given to a student with a minimum 3.0 GPA who has been involved in community or club activities. Recipients must have completed their freshman year in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* field.
Rebecca Barton	Rebecca Barton is an Interior Design student and is a former recipient of the CSU Study Abroad Scholarship and the ZONTA Women's Scholarship. She is a member of the Golden Key International Honor Society and has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll. She is also a member of the American Society of Interior Designers Student Chapter and the President's Leadership Program. Rebecca plans to pursue a career in lighting design.
Eva Floy Smith Wheeler Memorial Scholarship	The Eva Floy Smith Wheeler Memorial Scholarship was established and endowed by Jerry and Dorothy Wheeler in 1981. Mrs. Wheeler was a 1922 graduate of Home Economics. The $1,100 award is given to a senior in a Family and Consumer Sciences-related* major who is an active member of a leadership or professional group in his/her area of study. Selection is based on financial need, leadership, and scholarship.

Kelsey Manning

Kelsey Manning is a former recipient of the Blake Scholarship and the Margery Monfort Wilson Scholarship. A Restaurant and Resort Management student, she serves as secretary of the Lory Student Center Governing Board and is a member of the Campus Recreation Advisory Board. Kelsey would like to pursue a career working for a top-rated resort, possibly for the Disney Company.

Dr. Lynne White
Memorial
Scholarship

The Dr. Lynne White Memorial Scholarship is given in memory of Dr. White who graduated from Colorado State with an M.S. in Consumer Affairs in 1980 and considered her graduate work at the university to be one of the most valuable experiences of her life. Selection is based on potential for a high level of professional achievement in the field of study, with financial need considered. This year's award is $750.

Rebecca Tucker

Rebecca Tucker is an Occupational Therapy student who received a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Colorado State. She is the former recipient of the Pashby Scholarship and the Frantz Scholarship. She serves as co-president of the Pi Theta Epsilon Honor Society Student Chapter and is a member of the Student Occupational Therapy Association. Rebecca plans to pursue a career as an occupational therapist in a Veteran's Affairs Hospital.

*Family and Consumer Sciences-related areas include the major of Family and Consumer Sciences as well as majors in the departments of Design and Merchandising; Food Science and Human Nutrition; Human Development and Family Studies; and Occupational Therapy.

Design and Merchandising

American Sewing Guild-Denver Chapter Scholarship

The American Sewing Guild–Denver Chapter Scholarship is awarded to juniors, seniors, or graduate students concentrating in the field of Apparel Design and Production. Applicants must maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA, be Colorado residents with a Colorado high school diploma or have resided in the state for at least 10 years, and demonstrate involvement in Design and Merchandising activities. This year’s $1,200 award is shared by two students.

Melissa Still

Melissa Still is a former recipient of the Champions of Design Award and is a member of the Dean’s Leadership Council and the Design and Merchandising Leadership Team. She serves as president of Delta Delta Delta Sorority and volunteers with a local elementary school. Melissa plans a career working with a company who supports using recycled and environmentally-regulated materials.

Heather Van Wieren

Heather Van Wieren has been named to the Dean’s Honor Roll and serves as a resident assistant for one of the dorms on campus. She is a member of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter. Heather would like to pursue a career working for an apparel design company overseas and feels that her education at Colorado State will prepare her.

---

“Apparel design allows me the opportunity to provide others with what they need and to be able to create and express myself through a form of ‘wearable art’.”

Heather Van Wieren

---

Mr. Blackwell Scholarship

The Mr. Blackwell Scholarship was established by internationally acclaimed fashion designer Mr. Blackwell, known for his fabulous gowns and annual worst dressed list which he has compiled for over forty years. The Department’s Historic Costume and Textiles Collection has the largest collection of Mr. Blackwell originals in the world. Mr. Blackwell has also donated his sketchbooks and master patterns to the collection. The recipient of this $1,275 scholarship must be interested in pursuing a design career in daytime, afternoon, or evening wear.

Melissa Still

Melissa Still is a former recipient of the Champions of Design Award and is a member of the Dean’s Leadership Council and the Design and Merchandising Leadership Team. She serves as president of Delta Delta Delta Sorority and volunteers with a local elementary school. Melissa plans a career working with a company who supports using recycled and environmentally-regulated materials.

Kathryn T. Bohannon Scholarship

The Kathryn T. Bohannon Scholarship was established by Mr. David J. Folkes and friends in memory of his wife, Kathryn, who was an outstanding graduate student in 1991 in the Department of Design and Merchandising. Preference is given to graduate students specializing in Apparel Design with selection based on both financial need and scholastic achievement. This year's award is $2,100.

Madalyn Yovanoff

Madalyn Yovanoff received a Bachelor of Fine Arts from Haverford College in Philadelphia before coming to Colorado State to pursue an Interior Design degree. She serves on the board of the International Interior Design Association Student Chapter and participated in the Pret A Porter design competition. Madalyn looks forward to a successful career in interior design.

Jack Curfman Creative and Visual Design Scholarship

The Jack Curfman Creative and Visual Design Scholarship was established by Jack Curfman, his colleagues, and friends. Jack retired in the spring of 2001 after a distinguished 50-year career in interior design at Colorado State University. He is an internationally recognized exhibition designer whose professional reputation is matched only by his personal warmth, kindness, and generosity. The Curfman Gallery in the Lory Student Center on campus was named in honor of Jack. The scholarship was established at Jack's retirement and benefits an outstanding student who shows creative promise in his/her design work. The student can be a major in apparel design, interior design, graphic design, or theatre design and technology. This year's award is for $2,650 and is shared by two students.

Joan Geyer

Joan Geyer plans a career as an assistant interior designer with a long-term goal of becoming a senior designer. She is an Interior Design major with a Construction Management minor and was a member of the LEED student competition team. She is a former recipient of the Boyer Scholarship and is a member of the American Society of Interior Design Student Chapter.

Heather Van Wieren

Heather Van Wieren has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and serves as a resident assistant for one of the dorms on campus. She is a member of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter. Heather would like to pursue a career working for an apparel design company overseas and feels that her education at Colorado State will prepare her for this endeavor.

Betty Daly Memorial Scholarship

The Betty Daly Memorial Scholarship was established by family, friends, and business associates of Mrs. Daly, who was a 1976 graduate of Textiles and Clothing. It is a $2,700 scholarship awarded to a senior majoring in Apparel and Merchandising.

Chelsey Schnackenberg

Chelsey Schnackenberg is a member of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter and participated in the Pret-a-Porter Fashion Show. She is a former recipient of the Rebekah Lodge Scholarship. She received an Associate of Arts degree from Front Range Community College before transferring to Colorado State. Chelsey would like to pursue establishing her own clothing company.

---

"Your interest in supporting motivated, future professionals is highly appreciated by students."
Chelsey Schnackenberg

---

Fashion Group International, Inc. - Doray Gray Saddler Scholarship      The Fashion Group International, Inc. – Denver Region Doray Gray Saddler Scholarship was established for junior or senior students majoring in a fashion-related field. The $1000 award is given to a student with a minimum 3.0 GPA who shows a need for financial assistance.

Sarah Bredbenner

Sarah Bredbenner plans to launch a clothing line specializing in urban streetwear or form an eclectic boutique that is animal-friendly, using no feathers or furs on the clothing. She has respect and love for animals and would like to combine these two aspects into a career. She feels the major she chose will allow her to be creative and learn the value of hard work.

Joy Fleucher Memorial Scholarship      The Joy Fleucher Memorial Scholarship was established by her family in memory of Joy, who was a 1975 Textiles and Clothing student. It is a $500 scholarship awarded to a junior or senior concentrating in Apparel Design and Production who is participating in an internship experience. Financial need is also a consideration for this scholarship.

Lesley Coleman

Lesley Coleman is a former recipient of the McPherson Scholarship. She serves as vice president of the Campus Feminist Alliance and as a facilitator for Student Alliance for Gender Education (SAGE). Lesley is a member of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter and her future plans include owning a boutique shop in a mountain town in Colorado.

Dagmar Gustafson Memorial Scholarship      The Dagmar Gustafson Memorial Scholarship was established in honor of Ms. Gustafson, who was Department Head of Textiles and Clothing and spent 20 years at Colorado State. It is a $750 scholarship awarded to undergraduate or graduate students majoring in Design and Merchandising. Selection is based on active participation in departmental and campus activities.

Mindy Schifferns

Mindy Schifferns is a double major in Agricultural Sciences and Interior Design. She plans a career of designing clothing and protective wear for agricultural workers. She is the former recipient of the Society of Women Engineers Award and the McClure Scholarship. Mindy serves as a CSU Agricultural Ambassador.

Sally Haxton Memorial Scholarship      The Sally Haxton Memorial Scholarship was established by her family, friends and colleagues. Sally developed and administered the merchandising internship program in Design and Merchandising for 25 years and was a beloved faculty member devoted to helping students. The $1,700 award is given to an undergraduate or graduate student with a merchandising concentration who has an interest in pursuing an internship. Selection is also based on financial need.

Lauren Kiebel

Lauren Kiebel is a member of the Fashion Group International Student Chapter and Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority. She volunteers with CSUnity and Habitat for Humanity. Lauren plans to travel to other countries and to establish a business that will focus on home décor, catering, event planning, and photography.

---

“From what I have been told, many students and faculty loved Sally and it is a privilege to receive a scholarship in her memory.”

Lauren Kiebel

---

Ann Hyde Memorial Scholarship

Ann Hyde was a well known couture designer in Denver. She had a passion for quality construction techniques and exquisite fabrics. The Ann Hyde Memorial Scholarship was established by Dr. E. Fred Birdsall in honor and memory of his wife. The $1,375 award is given to undergraduate students majoring in Apparel Design and Production with an interest in custom tailoring and couture design and a minimum 3.0 GPA.

Katelin Wussow

Katelin Wussow is a former recipient of the Hyde Scholarship and the Association of Sewing and Design Professional Scholarship. She is a member of the National Scholars Honor Society and Pi Beta Phi Sorority and volunteers with CSUnity and with Champions are Readers. Katelin plans a career working in New York City, designing wearable couture women's wear.

Light Center Scholarship

The Light Center Scholarship was established by Larry and Kay Edwards, owners of the lighting store, The Light Center in Fort Collins. The $1,500 award is for graduate or undergraduate students from Colorado with at least a 3.0 GPA who have financial need. The student must be either an Interior Design major interested in a career in lighting design, or a Merchandising major.

Lauren Laboy

Lauren Laboy is a member of the Design and Merchandising Leadership Team and the International Interior Design Association Student Chapter. She is a former recipient of the Students First Business Scholarship and the Howard Family Scholarship. A double major in Interior Design and Business Administration, Lauren plans to establish an interior design firm.

Northern Colorado Design Guild Scholarship

The Northern Colorado Design Guild Scholarship was established in memory of Guild member Dory Pratt. The scholarship is also funded in part by Arts Alive Fort Collins. The scholarship is for a junior or senior Interior Design student who aspires to an interior design career, and plans to pursue an internship in the field. The student must have a 3.5 or higher GPA to be eligible for this $750 scholarship.

Lauren Welch

Lauren Welch has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a member of the Design and Merchandising Leadership Team and the International Interior Design Association Student Chapter. She volunteers at her church and Animal House Shelter. She plans to pursue a career of designing assisted living and retirement homes.

Barbara Oliver Memorial Scholarship

The Barbara Oliver Memorial Scholarship was established in 1997 in memory of Dr. Barbara Oliver, a valued friend and faculty member in Design and Merchandising. Preference for the $1,000 award is given to entering or continuing graduate students with a specialization in merchandising or apparel.

Paige Emerich

Paige Emerich received a Bachelor of Science in Family and Consumer Sciences from the University of Wyoming before coming to Colorado State. While at Wyoming, she was named the Outstanding Senior in Family and Consumer Sciences and was a recipient of the Helen Miller Scholarship. After graduation, she would like to work with an outdoor clothing company.

Education

L. Sharon Blocker Memorial Scholarship

The L. Sharon Blocker Memorial Scholarship of $1,450 is presented in memory of Dr. Blocker, a faculty member in the School of Education from 1990-97, who was instrumental in starting the first Partnership School relationship in Fort Collins. Partnership Schools pair with the Colorado State teacher training program to provide hands-on experiential learning for student teachers. Scholarship recipients must be senior or post-baccalaureate students enrolled in the Teacher Licensure Program, and in their student teaching year, maintain a 3.0 GPA, show financial need, and demonstrate community involvement.

Jamie Sugarman

Jamie Sugarman is a former recipient of the Klug Scholarship and serves as president of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars Student Chapter. She volunteers as a tutor with international families at the University Village Center and with other campus activities including Cans Around the Oval. Jamie plans a career as an early childhood educator.

---

“My time at CSU has been extremely memorable and I am thankful for everyone in my life who has contributed to my education.”

Jamie Sugarman

---

L.L. Gibbons Scholarship

The L.L. Gibbons Scholarship was established by family, colleagues, and students in honor of Mr. Gibbons, who served as department head of Industrial Sciences for 11 of the 24 years he taught at Colorado State. The $675 scholarship is awarded to students pursuing teacher licensure in a career and technical related content area or an adult education and training Master’s, based on grade point average and scholastic achievement.

Jacqueline McGinty

Jacqueline McGinty received a Bachelor of Science degree in Nutrition from Bastyr University in Seattle before coming to Colorado State to pursue a Master’s degree in Education and Human Resource Studies. She plans to complete her graduate studies and continue in the Ph.D. program at CSU. Her career goal is to become a college level educator.

Frances Gimplowitz Memorial Scholarship

The Frances Gimplowitz Memorial Scholarship was established by family and friends in memory and honor of Frances Gimplowitz, a devoted mother and teacher. An extraordinarily wise woman, Frances Gimplowitz returned to school at age 38 to earn a teaching certificate, then taught high school women who were desperately in need of skills and role models. This $600 scholarship is for first generation undergraduate students committed to teaching diverse populations in public schools and enrolled in the Teacher Licensure Program.

Margie Ellis

Margie Ellis attended Aims Community College before transferring to Colorado State. She is a former recipient of the Distinguished Scholar Award and was named to the Dean's List at Aims. She volunteers as a Sunday School teacher at her church and with the Loveland Museum where she facilitates a class for youth. Margie's long-term career goal is to become a middle school or high school art teacher.

Wm. Paul Gray
Scholarship

The Wm. Paul Gray Scholarship was established in 1986 by Mr. Gray, a 1936 and 1953 graduate of Colorado State and an emeritus professor. This $1,550 award is given to Agricultural Education graduate students in a program to enhance their abilities as teachers or administrators of agriculture programs at secondary or postsecondary levels or undergraduate students who want to teach Agricultural Education.

Rheanna Vrbas

Rheanna Vrbas is an Agricultural Education and teacher licensure student who transferred to Colorado State from Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, Colorado. She is a past recipient of the Colorado Young Farmers Scholarship and is a member of the Colorado Farm Bureau. Rheanna's career goal is to become an agriculture teacher at the high school and collegiate level.

Nancy Hartley
Scholarship

Dr. Nancy Hartley has been a leader in K-12 and higher education for the past three decades. She has served as professor and director of the School of Education and served as dean of the College of Applied Human Sciences for 10 years. The Nancy Hartley Scholarship, established in honor of Dr. Hartley, will assist doctoral students in the School of Education. The $1,600 award is given to doctoral students with a minimum 3.0 GPA, interested in research with at-risk populations or work with the Research and Development Center for the Advancement of Student Learning on research related to professional development schools.

Mary Pilgrim

Mary Pilgrim volunteers with a local elementary school, preparing students for the Colorado Math League exam. She is also a member of Fale, the Fort Collins African drum and dance troupe. She is a former recipient of the Excellence in Education Award and the Colorado Peaks Alliance Fellowship. After completing a doctorate in mathematics and education, Mary plans to teach at a college or university.

---

"The experience of being a scribe for a blind student changed my perspective on how mathematics can be taught."

---

Mary Pilgrim

Milton E. Larson
Memorial
Scholarship

The Milton E. Larson Memorial Scholarship was established by colleagues, alumni, and friends of Dr. Larson, who was a professor in the School of Education. It is an $3,200 award for junior, senior, or graduate students in Vocational Technology Education who have maintained a 3.0 GPA, and possess leadership abilities and good character. This year two students share this award.

Ashley Hudson

Ashley Hudson volunteers with Habitat for Humanity and plans a career as an agriculture teacher. She received an Associate of Liberal Arts degree from Northwestern Colorado Community College. She is a former recipient of the Built Ford Tough FFA Scholarship and served as vice president of Alpha Tau Alpha Honor Fraternity.

Daniel Wilson

A former recipient of the Richardson Scholarship and the Strate Scholarship, Daniel Wilson is a Mechanical Engineering and teacher licensure student. He serves as philanthropy and scholarship chair of Beta Theta Pi Fraternity and participates in several campus activities including Ram Ride and the Research Experience for Undergraduates. Daniel plans to pursue a career in engineering and return to school to pursue a Master's degree in Engineering before becoming a teacher.

Lyle N. and
Helen L. Slonecker
Scholarship

The Lyle N. and Helen L. Slonecker Scholarship was established by the Sloneckers, both Colorado State alumni. Mr. Slonecker was also an emeritus professor in the School of Education. This $600 scholarship is awarded to juniors or seniors involved in Teacher Education, with selection based on financial need, scholastic achievement, and leadership.

Connie Hubble

Connie Hubble graduated summa cum laude with an Associate's degree from Front Range Community College before transferring to Colorado State to pursue a degree in English Education. She is a former recipient of the Daniels Fund Scholarship and volunteers as a Sunday School teacher for her church. Her long-term career goal is to become a middle school English and Language Arts teacher.

Family and Consumer Sciences

May Dubois Memorial Scholarship

The May Dubois Memorial Scholarship was established with an estate gift from Emma Agnes Dubois in memory of her sister May. The scholarship is for students majoring in Family and Consumer Sciences Education. This year's award is $775.

Cristina Giraldo

Cristina Giraldo transferred to Colorado State from the University of Wyoming. She is a former recipient of the Hulquist Scholarship and volunteers with Ram Ride and with a local junior high school in their teen life classroom. Cristina would like to become a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher after graduation.

Family and Consumer Alumni Scholarship

The Family and Consumer Sciences Alumni Scholarship was established with donations from alumni and friends of the program. The scholarship is designated for an incoming freshman or transfer student with a minimum 3.0 GPA. This year's award is $1,000.

Kelly Mitchell

Kelly Mitchell is a former recipient of the Westmoreland Coal Company Scholarship and the Music Excellence Award. She volunteers with her church and is a member of the college youth group. Her future plans include becoming a Family and Consumer Sciences educator.

Lucile Fee Scholarship

The Lucile Fee Scholarship was established in 1983 by friends of Ms. Fee, a graduate of Colorado State who devoted her career to vocational education. This year's award of $1,925 is given to a junior or senior in Family and Consumer Sciences Education or master's or doctoral candidates in vocational education or similar teacher licensure program. Applicants must demonstrate leadership in school, community, and professional activities related to Family and Consumer Sciences Education.

Elizabeth Konkol

Elizabeth Konkol participates in the National Western Livestock Show and is a member of the Block and Bridle Club. She is a former recipient of the National Western Stock Show Scholarship and the Bruner 4-H Scholarship. She plans to combine her degrees in Animal Science and Family and Consumer Sciences and pursue a career teaching or working in agricultural communications.

---

"With the education I will gain from Colorado State, I hope to one day become a teacher so I may give others an appreciation for the important roles that the family and agriculture play in our society."

Elizabeth Konkol

---

Alice M. Ford
Scholarship

The Alice M. Ford Scholarship was established for Dr. Ford who received her Master's degree from Colorado State and taught Home Economics for many years. The $3,200 scholarship is given to an undergraduate majoring in Family and Consumer Sciences. This year's award is shared by two students.

Michelleann Avilla

Michelleann Avilla is a member of the Alpha Phi Gamma Sorority and the Peer Leadership, Assistance and Support (PALS) Program. She volunteers with her sorority by planning fundraisers and participating in other community service projects. Her career goal includes becoming a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher.

Jessica Leonowicz

Jessica Leonowicz is a member of the Student Alumni Connection and volunteers in several alumni activities including assisting with alumni events. She is also a member of Zeta Tau Alpha Sorority and assists with the planning of their activities. Jessica plans to pursue a Master's degree after graduation and work in the social work or mental health field working with youth.

Lydia Anne
Hoffman Morrison
Scholarship

The Lydia Anne Hoffman Morrison Scholarship was established by her family in 1994 in honor of Mrs. Morrison, who received a Bachelor's degree in Home Economics in 1916. She turned 100 years old in October 1993 and was recognized at Colorado State's 100th birthday party for Home Economics. Lydia passed away in 1996 at the age of 102. The $1,600 award is given to undergraduate students majoring in Family and Consumer Sciences Education.

Christina Decrescentis

Christina Decrescentis is a former recipient of the Family and Consumer Sciences Alumni Scholarship. She volunteers with the CSU club ice hockey team assisting in raising support and participates in intramural sports. Her future plans are to pursue a career as a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher.

Food Science & Human Nutrition

Richard W. and Shirley W. Blake Scholarship

The Richard W. and Shirley W. Blake Scholarship was established in memory of Mr. and Mrs. Blake. Shirley was a 1942 Home Economics graduate and Richard was a 1942 Economics alumnus. It is awarded to Food Science and Human Nutrition students (sophomores, juniors, or seniors) with a minimum 3.0 GPA, and is based on financial need. Four recipients share this year's $10,000 award.

Tahlia Fischer

Tahlia Fischer has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and volunteered for the Progeria Research Foundation, an organization that raises money for finding a cure for progeria, a disease that afflicts children. She has also volunteered for horse rescue organizations. She looks forward to a career in nutrition.

Anna Neeld

Anna Neeld formerly attended Mesa State College before transferring to Colorado State. She is a former recipient of the President's Award at Mesa State and has volunteered as a peer counselor at the Pregnancy Center of Montrose. She volunteers with her church and plans to pursue a career in nutrition after graduation.

Amber Webb

Amber Webb serves on the board of directors of Cup of Hope, a non-profit organization that focuses on drinking water issues in developing countries. Her long-term career goal is to become a registered dietitian so she may educate and empower individuals regarding nutrition and their health.

Seth Yoder

Seth Yoder is a member of the American Dietetic Association Student Chapter and is a member of a band that entertains locally. He would like to pursue a career in public nutrition where he could work to improve the quality and choices of food that is served in the public schools.

Margaret and Donald Boyd Graduate Scholarship

The Margaret and Donald Boyd Graduate Student Scholarship was established by the Boyds to recognize graduate students in Human Nutrition. Margaret graduated in 1950 with a Bachelor's degree in Home Economics, and in 1956 with a Master's in Human Nutrition and Dietetics. She's an emeritus faculty member of the University of Wyoming. The scholarship is awarded to a Master's or Ph.D. student enrolled in the Human Nutrition Program, and criteria includes involvement in professional and leadership activities and a minimum 3.5 GPA. Two recipients share this year's $5000 award.

Lisa Conway

Lisa Conway received a Bachelor's degree from the University of Colorado before coming to Colorado State. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa and was named to the Dean's List at CU. She volunteers with the Larimer County Humane Society, Program Energy, and the Early Childhood Center. She plans to become a dietitian and work with children and underprivileged families.

Alana Gay

After receiving a Bachelor's degree in Biology from the University of Dallas, Alana Gay transferred to Colorado State. She volunteers with her church and served as an intern with Americorps. She plans to become a nutritionist and hopes to establish a program where she could prepare special meals for persons who require dialysis.

Egg & I Restaurant Scholarship

The Egg & I Restaurant Scholarship is a $1,000 scholarship for a junior or senior majoring in Restaurant and Resort Management. Student recipients must maintain a 3.0 GPA, have been employed in the local food service industry within the past year, and demonstrate financial need. Rayno and Patricia Seaser are the founders and owners of The Egg & I Restaurants, which were established in 1987. The Seasers now own ten restaurants in Colorado and Wyoming. Rayno and Patty are active in the community and have an affinity for Colorado State University as they hire many CSU students to work in their restaurants. They established this scholarship to share their passion for food service and their love of people.

Katie Provorse

Katie Provorse is a former recipient of the Colorado Distinguished Scholar Award and the Provost's Scholarship. She has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a volunteer for Habitat for Humanity. Katie's future career plans include owning and operating a French-American café.

Nadine and Jim Henry Family Scholarship

The Nadine and Jim Henry Family Scholarship was established by the Henrys, both Colorado State University alumni. Nadine was a 1941 Home Economics graduate and Jim graduated from the Animal Sciences program in 1940. Jim passed away in 2006. The $2,750 award is given to undergraduates with a 3.0 GPA seeking careers in the food science and human nutrition area, who demonstrate ability in practical decision-making and common sense judgment. The scholarship automatically renews for up to four years if recipients continue to meet the criteria.

Jaralyn Moe

Jaralyn Moe is a member of the Delta Delta Delta Sorority and participates in several community service activities. She is a former recipient of the Students First Scholarship and the Western Undergraduate Exchange Scholarship. Jaralyn would like to pursue a career working with active people or athletes.

---

"Receiving a scholarship motivates me to work harder and become successful."

Jaralyn Moe

---

G. Richard and Coerene Jansen Scholarship

The G. Richard and Coerene Jansen Scholarship is awarded to seniors in Human Nutrition and Dietetics. This scholarship is funded by an endowment donated at the time of their retirement by Dr. and Mrs. Jansen and friends. Coerene is a former researcher and computer specialist, and Dick served as Department Head of Food Science and Human Nutrition from 1969 to 1990. This year, the award is $1,550.

Mallory Rutherford

Mallory Rutherford is a former recipient of the Elizabeth Short Scholarship and the Distinguished Scholar Award. She serves as a resident assistant at one of the dorms on campus and volunteers with Program Energy. A member of the Nutrition and Fitness Club, Mallory would like to work for a school district or an education program educating parents and children about healthy eating habits.

Kendall Graduate Scholarship Patricia A. Kendall joined the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition in 1974 and has been an Extension Specialist specializing in food safety and nutrition since 1976. Dr. Kendall served as interim department head 1997-1999 and as graduate programs coordinator 1997-2000. She has had a long-term commitment to graduate education in the area of community nutrition and food safety education. The Kendall Graduate Scholarship was established by Dr. Kendall to support graduate students who are pursuing an M.S. or Ph.D. in community nutrition and/or food safety education. The $1,500 award is given to students who have been accepted into the dietetic internship program, have financial need, and have a GPA of 3.2 or greater.

Joy Markuson

Joy Markuson received a Bachelor of Science degree from Colorado State and was named to the Dean's Honor Roll. She is a former recipient of the Langley Scholarship and volunteers with Program Energy where she is conducting research on children eating healthy breakfasts. She is pursuing a Master's degree in Human Nutrition with a specialization in Community Nutrition and plans to become a registered dietitian.

Dorothy Douglass and Glenn Langley Memorial Scholarship The Dorothy Douglass and Glenn Langley Memorial Scholarship is given to students enrolled in majors in the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition. Applicants must demonstrate high academic standards, show financial need, and have volunteer service. This year's award is $925.

Laura Gilsdorf

Laura Gilsdorf received a Bachelor's degree in Food Service Management and Culinary Nutrition from Johnson and Wales University before coming to Colorado State. While an undergraduate student, she was a recipient of the Presidential Leadership Scholarship. She volunteers with Program Energy and plans to pursue a career as a nutrition counselor.

Larimer County Restaurant Association Scholarship The Larimer County Restaurant Association Scholarship sponsors a $1,000 scholarship for a student in the Restaurant and Resort Management Program. The student recipient must have been employed in the Larimer County food service industry within the past year and be a junior or senior.

Amy Johnson

Amy Johnson is a former recipient of the Marriott Scholarship and is a member of the Colorado Restaurant Association Student Chapter. She volunteers with Only One, an organization that is raising funds to build a school in Nepal and with Relay for Life in her hometown. Amy's long-term career goal is to work for a large hotel chain and she would someday like to own a bed and breakfast in the mountains of Colorado.

Jack Lough/Dick Carlton Scholarship The Jack Lough/Dick Carlton Scholarship is for $1,400 and is awarded to juniors or seniors majoring in Restaurant and Resort Management. Awardees must have a minimum 3.0 GPA, demonstrate interest or work experience in the food service industry, and have contributed to campus/community service. This year's award was split between two students.

Meghan Hutchins

Meghan Hutchins volunteers for Hearts and Horses Therapeutic Riding Center and is a former recipient of the ProStart Scholarship. She would like to pursue a career in the business side of the hospitality industry and feels her degree in Restaurant and Resort Management will help her immensely.

Kelsey Manning

Kelsey Manning is a former recipient of the Blake Scholarship and the Margery Monfort Wilson Scholarship. A Restaurant and Resort Management student, she serves as secretary of the Lory Student Center Governing Board and is a member of the Campus Recreation Advisory Board. Kelsey would like to pursue a career working for a top-rated resort, possibly for the Disney Company.

J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott
Foundation
Scholarship

The J. Willard and Alice S. Marriott Foundation provides scholarships to students majoring in Restaurant and Resort Management. The scholarship gift was facilitated by the staff at the Fort Collins Marriott to encourage a greater number of academically talented students with financial need to pursue training and careers in the hospitality industry. This year nine students are sharing the $9,000 award.

Tyler Davies

Tyler Davies plans to learn every aspect of a four- or five-star hotel and become a general manager. He feels that learning about the operation will make him a more effective manager. While attending school, Tyler also works as a front desk manager at a local hotel.

Lisa Emmerman

Lisa Emmerman is the former recipient of the Harold Ferguson High School Parent Scholarship and the Kristy Visoki Memorial Scholarship. She formerly attended Front Range Community College before transferring to Colorado State. Lisa would like to pursue a career as an event coordinator for a hotel or resort.

Erin Falloon

Erin Falloon serves as co-president of the Colorado Restaurant Association Student Chapter. She volunteers with Ramride, CSUnity, and as a coach for a girls basketball team. Erin plans a career working in the hotel industry as a manager.

Meghan Hutchins

Meghan Hutchins volunteers for Hearts and Horses Therapeutic Riding Center and is a former recipient of the ProStart Scholarship. She would like to pursue a career in the business side of the hospitality industry and feels her degree in Restaurant and Resort Management will help her immensely.

Kyle Nuckols

Kyle Nuckols attended Berthoud High School where he received many awards including being named to the National Honor Society and the Outstanding Academic Achievement Award. He also participated in soccer and baseball. Kyle would like to pursue a career as a manager for a hotel resort chain.

Molly Osgood

Molly Osgood is a member of Chi Omega Sorority and participates in many of their community service projects. She plans a career working for a hotel as an event planner and feels her education at Colorado State will prepare her for this endeavor.

Brennalynn Patterson

Brennalynn Patterson is a former recipient of the Marriott Scholarship and volunteers for Hope Lives Breast Cancer Support Center and the ALS Association. She is studying Nutrition and Food Science and Restaurant and Resort Management and plans to combine these areas and become a registered dietitian who plans restaurant meals.

Maureen Schembri

Maureen Schembri works summers at the YMCA Camp Jones Gulch and has received the Honor Counselor of the Year award. She is a member of the Colorado Restaurant Association Student Chapter. After receiving a degree, Maureen would like to travel to a foreign country and work in the hotel industry.

Jodi Woodcock

Jodi Woodcock is a member of the Colorado Restaurant Association Student Chapter and works at a local restaurant while attending school. She enjoys snowboarding in her free time and would like to pursue a career as a manager of a luxury resort.

Miriam Haynes
Robertson
Memorial
Scholarship

The Miriam Haynes Robertson Memorial Scholarship was established in her memory by her family in 1961. Miriam received a Bachelor of Science degree in Home Economics in 1912. Dr. David Robertson, her husband, was an emeritus professor and head of the Department of Agronomy. This $2,300 scholarship is awarded to a senior majoring in Human Nutrition and Dietetics with a minimum 3.00 GPA, who also has the highest cumulative GPA in English, Math, and Chemistry in his or her junior year.

Crystal Klataske

Crystal Klataske is a former recipient of the Blake Scholarship and is a member of CSU Navigators. She transferred to Colorado State from Fort Hays State University where she was named to the Dean's Honor Roll and served as vice president of Alpha Lambda Delta Honor Society. Crystal plans to pursue a career as a registered dietitian.

Elizabeth Hamnett
Short Scholarship

The Elizabeth Hamnett Short Scholarship was established by Betty and Harold Short. Mrs. Short was a Home Economics major at Colorado State who passed away in 1998. The $5,600 award is given to juniors or seniors majoring in the Department of Food Science and Human Nutrition. Recipients must rank in the upper one-third of their class and have graduated from a Colorado or Wyoming high school. Two students share this year's award.

Katherine Blatter

Katherine Blatter is a former recipient of the CSU Distinguished Scholar Award. She is a member of the Pre-Physical Therapy Club and National Society of Collegiate Scholars. She volunteers with CSUnity and plans a career as a physical therapist in an out-patient clinic.

Kayleigh Weyant

Kayleigh Weyant attended the University of Tulsa before transferring to Colorado State. While at Tulsa she was named to the Dean's Honor Roll and was a member of Phi Eta Sigma Honor Society. She volunteered with Big Brothers and Big Sisters and with Habitat for Humanity. Her long-term career goal is to become a physician's assistant and join the Navy.

Health & Exercise Science

Attack Pack Scholarship

The Attack Pack Scholarship was named in honor of a group of heart attack survivors, many of whom participate in the Adult Fitness Program in Health and Exercise Science. Bill Beitz led the initiative to start the scholarship and did an outstanding job raising funds. His passion, energy, tenacity, dedication, and personal generosity ensured that the fund grew rapidly and was endowed in just five months. The $1,200 award is given to a junior or senior student with a quality academic record who demonstrates volunteer service in health promotion and plans a career in cardiac rehabilitation.

Kelsey Todd

Kelsey Todd is a member of the National Scholars Honor Society, Dean's Leadership Council, and Adult Fitness Program. She volunteers for Poudre Valley Hospital in the cardiac rehab area and with the 9News Health Fair. She is also a member of the Key Academic Community. Kelsey plans a career as an orthopedic physician's assistant.

B.C. Cowel Health and Exercise Science Scholarship

The B.C. Cowel Health and Exercise Science Scholarship was established by Bo Cowel's family in honor of his years of service at Colorado State as a physical education professor and intramural director. Bo passed away in 1999. The $1,650 award is awarded to a junior student. Selection is based on high involvement in physical education activity, interest, and leadership. Recipients must be Colorado residents.

Rebecca Fick

Rebecca Fick is an intercollegiate soccer player and also volunteers as a youth soccer coach. She is a Sports Medicine student who plans to pursue a doctorate in physical therapy. Rebecca is a member of the Pre-Physical Therapy Club and participates in the Physical Therapy Shadowing Program in the Fort Collins and Loveland communities.

Elizabeth Forbes Memorial Scholarship

The Elizabeth Forbes Memorial Scholarship was established by friends and colleagues of Miss Forbes in honor of her 39 years as Director of Physical Education for women at Colorado State. This $3,100 scholarship is awarded to a senior majoring in Health and Exercise Science. Selection is based on professional promise and participation in campus, city, and professional activities. Applicants should have experience working with people with disabilities, senior citizens, and/or preschool children. This year's award is shared by two students.

Jac-Lyn Mela

Jac-Lyn Mela volunteers with Meals on Wheels in South Carolina and locally in Larimer County. She works with seniors in the Poudre Valley Health District in the nutrition program. Jac-Lyn is planning to pursue a career as a physical therapist.

Olivia Taylor

Olivia Taylor is a Sports Medicine student who plans to pursue a career as a physical therapist. She volunteers with the Adaptive Recreation Program and has assisted with goal ball, a Paralympic sport for the blind. Olivia is planning a career in physical therapy.

Eddie Hanna
Memorial
Scholarship

The Eddie Hanna Memorial Scholarship was established by family and friends of Eddie, a football player for CSU, who died of a heart attack following the 1949 opening game in Colorado Springs. Eddie's Ram football number 21 was retired after his death at age 24. This $1,800 award is available to sophomores, juniors, or seniors majoring in Health and Exercise Science who have distinguished themselves in some form of athletics.

Brandan Hostar

Brandan Hostar participates in the ROTC Program at CSU and plans a career with the U.S. Army as an exercise specialist. He participates in intramural soccer, wrestling, basketball, and competed at the national level in body building. Brandan volunteers with the Adult Fitness Program.

Sue Jones
Health and
Exercise Science
Scholarship

The Sue Jones Health and Exercise Science Scholarship was established in 1994 by Sue, a 1959 Physical Education graduate. The $750 award is given to juniors or seniors with a minimum 3.0 GPA, who demonstrate professional involvement in the Health and Exercise area, and a commitment to the department.

Jennifer Salazar

Jennifer Salazar is a Health Promotion student who is pursuing a career as an ECG technician and cardiac rehab specialist. She volunteers with the Knowledge Quest Program where she works with junior and senior high school students. Jennifer serves as student representative on the College's Diversity Committee.

Sheri Linnell
Scholarship

Sheri Linnell is the director of the Colorado State University Adult Fitness Program, a position she has held for over 25 years. She has mentored many health promotion students through their first practicum experience. The Sheri Linnell Scholarship was established in 2005 by friends, family, and colleagues of Sheri in her honor. The scholarship is for a junior or senior in the health promotion concentration who has a minimum 3.0 GPA and has demonstrated volunteer service in health promotion. This year's award is $1,500.

Rachel Trujillo

Rachel Trujillo is the former recipient of the Marchi Athletic Scholarship and the Boulder Hospital Auxiliary Scholarship. She is a member of the Colorado Eagles dance team and performs at all home hockey games. She also volunteers with the Adult Fitness Program as well as many community activities. Rachel plans a career working in the health care field, especially with overweight and obese children.

Ann Livingston
Memorial
Scholarship

The Ann Livingston Memorial Scholarship was established by family and friends of Ann, who was a Colorado State alumna and Poudre School District teacher for 28 years. The award is for $4,150 and is given to undergraduates majoring in Health and Exercise Science concentrating in health promotion. Preference is given to graduates of Poudre School District.

Lindsay Decourcey	Lindsay Decourcey has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a former recipient of the Anderson Scholarship and the Rotary Scholarship. She participates in the Honors Program and volunteers as a student leader with her church. After graduation, Lindsay plans to pursue a career in physical therapy or nursing.
Emily Schroeder	Emily Schroeder is a former recipient of the Margery Wilson Scholarship and the Cook Memorial Scholarship. She has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a member of the Chemistry Club. Emily plans to attend a chiropractic college and become a licensed chiropractor.
Kay Schaake Memorial Scholarship	The Kay Schaake Memorial Scholarship was established by family and colleagues of Kay, who was a Physical Education professor at Colorado State. For students majoring in Health and Exercise Science concentrating in health promotion, the $1,125 award is based on financial need and scholastic achievement. It is awarded to students who have shown broad-based participation in professional activities and/or organizations.
Jennifer Chrisman	Jennifer Chrisman volunteers at Poudre Valley Hospital where she works with the Healthy Kids Club and Project Fit programs. She has worked for the past six years as a summer youth camp supervisor and served as a staff member with the CSU Adult Fitness Program.
Jean T. Shepardson Health and Exercise Science Scholarship	The Jean Tramell Shepardson Health and Exercise Science Scholarship was established from the estate of Charles Shepardson in memory of his second wife. It is a $1,475 award given to an undergraduate student majoring in Health and Exercise Science, based on sound citizenship and good moral character.
Jenna Coleman	Jenna Coleman has been active in the Presidential Leadership Program the past two years. She is also a member of the Ram Leadership Team, Dean's Leadership Council, and the University's Student Funding Board. She volunteers with CSUnity and Cans Around the Oval. Jenna plans a career as a surgical nurse.
Kelly Walker-Haley Health Promotion Scholarship	The Kelly Walker-Haley Health Promotion Scholarship acknowledges a student's outstanding leadership and service in health promotion to the Department of Health and Exercise Science, the University, and the community. Kelly Walker-Haley was the Coordinator of Clinical Experience and the Director of the Wellness Promotion concentration in the Department of Exercise and Sports Science (now Health and Exercise Science) for eight years. Her unique enthusiasm and contagious sense of humor are greatly missed by students and faculty since her retirement due to Multiple Sclerosis. She is fondly described by faculty as an extremely kind and compassionate instructor and advisor who always made time for students. This year's award is for $4,000 and is shared by two students.
Elisabeth (Betsy) Coniglio	Elisabeth (Betsy) Coniglio serves as an officer in the Department of Health and Exercise Science's Major Club. She volunteers with CSU UNICEF, the Chemistry Club outreach elementary school program, and the Adult Fitness Program. Betsy also provides home health care for a chronically disabled patient.

Caitlin Hoxsey

Caitlin Hoxsey is a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars and the National Honor Society. She currently serves as an Admissions Ambassador and volunteers with Ram Welcome and the Homecoming Race. She also assists with the Bonfils Blood Drive and a local children's Easter egg hunt. Caitlin is also active in intramural flag football, basketball, and volleyball.

Human Development & Family Studies

Margaret B. Hanson Memorial Scholarship

The Margaret B. Hanson Memorial Scholarship was established by family, friends, colleagues, and former students of Mrs. Hanson, who was an assistant professor in Human Development and Family Studies. It is a $1,125 scholarship awarded to undergraduates majoring in HDFS who demonstrate a commitment to working with diverse populations.

Jennifer Kolinske

Jennifer Kolinske volunteers at a local elementary school in the Poudre School District. She returned to school after working several years in the public sector to pursue a degree in early childhood education. Her long-term career goal is to become a kindergarten teacher.

Emma Ulsaker Hulquist Memorial Scholarship

The Emma Ulsaker Hulquist Memorial Scholarship was established by Mrs. Hulquist's daughters, Jewel Varwig and Betty Sherritt, and their husbands in honor of her service to Colorado State and commitment to education. It is a $2,825 award given to sophomores or juniors with a minimum 3.0 GPA who have demonstrated involvement in extracurricular activities. Recipients must either be a major in Human Development and Family Studies or pursuing teacher certification in Family and Consumer Sciences.

Erin Drescher

Erin Drescher has been named to the Dean's Honor Roll and is a former recipient of the TXI Scholarship. She is a member of Navigators and the National Society of Collegiate Scholars. She participates in intramural sports and volunteers as a tutor for Triunfo/Triumph Tutoring Program. Erin plans to pursue a career as a kindergarten or first grade teacher.

---

"Contributions such as yours help students accomplish their dreams."

Erin Drescher

---

Human Development and Family Studies Undergraduate Student Development Scholarship

The Human Development and Family Studies Undergraduate Student Development Scholarship is given to a student who has made multiple contributions to other students in Human Development and Family Studies. The scholarship was established by two faculty members in the Department, Drs. Kevin Oltjenbruns and Jill Kreutzer, who are now retired. The $1,700 award is given to a junior or a senior with at least a 3.0 GPA.

Jacquelyn Tanner

Jacquelyn Tanner serves as a peer advisor for Human Development and Family Studies where she helps other students reach their goals. After receiving an undergraduate degree, she plans to attend nursing school and become a pediatric nurse where she can realize her dream of working with children.

Prudence M. Kaley Scholarship The Prudence M. Kaley Scholarship was established by Prue Kaley, a 1972 graduate of Human Development and Family Studies at Colorado State University. Prue is a real estate agent in Fort Collins with The Group. The $1,972 scholarship is for a graduate student in the department who demonstrates financial need, and commemorates the year that Prue graduated.

April Malcolm

April Malcolm is a former recipient of the Columbine Scholarship and the Gifford Scholarship. She is collaborating on a research project and served an internship with Community Corrections of Larimer County and Family Medicine Center. Her long-term career goal is to become a marriage and family therapist and work in a community-based agency, later forming a private practice.

Shaun O'Brien Memorial Scholarship The Shaun O'Brien Memorial Scholarship was established in memory of Shaun T. O'Brien by his dear friend, Lisa Ford. Shaun graduated from Colorado State University in 1981 with a Bachelor's degree in Human Development and Family Studies. The award is given to an undergraduate or graduate Human Development and Family Studies student with a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 and requires an essay. This year two scholarships were awarded in the amount of $1,250 each.

Kati Ledall

Kati Ledall is a freshman who attended high school in Eaton, Colorado. While attending high school, she was active in 4-H and received many academic awards including the Kodak Leadership Award. She volunteers at the Northern Colorado Medical Center and the Eaton Library. After completing her degree, Kati plans to attend graduate school with the goal of becoming an occupational therapist.

Emily Moore

Emily Moore is a former recipient of the Colorado Distinguished Scholars Award and the Community Education Foundation Scholarship. She is a member of the National Society of Collegiate Scholars and plans to become a teacher, a dream she has had since she was a small child.

Occupational Therapy

Lillian Solo Ager Memorial Scholarship

The Lillian Solo Ager Memorial Scholarship was established by Charlene L. Ager, a member of the Occupational Therapy Department faculty until her retirement in 1990, in memory of her mother. The scholarship is designed to provide support to graduate students majoring in Occupational Therapy who will be starting fieldwork in June or September, following award selection. Selection is based on a minimum 3.0 GPA and demonstrated creative arts experiences related to the Occupational Therapy field. This year's award is $1,250.

Kaitlin Gibson

Kaitlin Gibson received a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from the University of Northern Colorado before coming to Colorado State. While an undergraduate student, she was named to the Dean's List and received the Colorado Scholarship. Kaitlin participates in research projects and volunteers with the Dance Theatre of Loveland. She is a member of the American Occupational Therapist Association and would like to pursue a career as an occupational therapist in a hospital setting.

Marjorie Ball Memorial Scholarship

The Marjorie Ball Memorial Scholarship was established in honor and memory of Miss Ball, a professor who was always ready to assist students. The $1,850 scholarship is awarded to graduate students majoring in Occupational Therapy. Selection is based on professional potential, work, and need.

Jamie Kelley

Jamie Kelley is a member of the Student Occupational Therapy Association and the American Occupational Therapy Association. She is a former recipient of the AmeriCorps Scholarship and the Reformed University Fellowship. Her long-term career goal is to become an occupational therapist in a pediatric acute care setting.

Stella A. Durning Scholarship

The Stella A. Durning Scholarship was established when Stella, a 1930 graduate of Colorado State University, bequeathed half of her estate to the Department of Occupational Therapy to support scholarships. The scholarship is awarded to students who volunteer for activities in the field of occupational therapy and demonstrate a desire and commitment to pursue a career in occupational therapy. This year's award is $10,750 and is divided among eight students.

Katherine Armstrong

Katherine Armstrong received a Bachelor of Arts degree from Schreiner University in San Antonio, Texas. While an undergraduate student, she was a recipient of the Amy McNutt Scholarship and was named to the Dean's List. She is a member of Pi Theta Epsilon Honor Society and plans a career in occupational therapy where she is interested in applying improvisational movement and yoga in a therapeutic environment.

Megan Bermingham A member of the American Occupational Therapy Association, Megan Bermingham would like to pursue a career as an occupational therapist in a school setting. She is also a member of the American Massage Therapy Association and is a licensed massage therapist. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Sociology from Franklin and Marshall College in Lancaster, Pennsylvania.

Morgan Blado Morgan Blado received a Bachelor of Arts degree in English and Women's Studies from the University of New Hampshire. She is a member of the Pre-Occupational Therapy Club and volunteers with Respite Care. While attending school she also works as a participant trainer with stroke survivors and plans to pursue a career as an occupational therapist in this area.

Rachel Bomsta Rachel Bomsta is a former recipient of the Nielson Scholarship and the Brigham Young Scholarship which she received when she attended Brigham Young University. She volunteers with her church and spent time in Ecuador and Argentina on a mission trip. She plans a career as an occupational therapist, helping people reach their potential.

Erik Ferland Erik Ferland graduated magna cum laude from Fort Lewis College where he received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Anthropology. He was named to the Dean's List and plans a career as an occupational therapist, and ultimately would like to start a neuro-rehabilitation practice.

Rachel Gramig Rachel Gramig is a former recipient of the Occupational Therapy Graduate Fellowship and is a member of Student, Leadership, and Community Engagement (SLICE) where she participates in several campus activities including Cans Around the Oval and Alternative Summer Break. A graduate of the University of Tennessee-Knoxville where she received a Bachelor's degree in Human Ecology, Rachel would like to pursue a career of working with the terminally ill.

Kristina Kramer Kristina Kramer received a Bachelor of Science degree in Sociology from Kansas State University and graduated magna cum laude. While attending K-State, she was awarded the Long Scholarship and was a member of Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. She is a member of the American Occupational Therapy Association and plans a career as a certified hand therapist.

Andrea Staton Andrea Staton plans a career integrating occupational therapy with a mental health and creative arts background. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music and a Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology from Southeast Missouri State University. While an undergraduate student, Andrea was a recipient of the Regents Scholarship and was a member of Psi Chi Honor Society.

Elnora Gilfoyle Scholarship The Elnora Gilfoyle Scholarship was established by Ellie, a former Department Head, Dean, and Provost at Colorado State, to support potential leaders in the Occupational Therapy profession and the University. At her retirement and through the years, others have contributed to the scholarship to help honor Ellie as she is internationally recognized in the field. The profession and Colorado State University provided many learning opportunities for her. The $1,925 scholarship is for Occupational Therapy graduate students who demonstrate strong leadership potential.

Karen Smith

Karen Smith is a former recipient of the Durning Scholarship and serves as vice president of Pi Theta Epsilon Honor Society. She is also a member of the Student Occupational Therapy Association and the American Occupational Therapy Association. She volunteers with the Sustainable Living Fair and plans to pursue a career as an occupational therapist, working with young adults.

Mary Ann Lively Scholarship

The Mary Ann Lively Scholarship was established by colleagues, family, and friends in memory of Dr. Lively's many contributions to the Speech/Language Pathology program formerly offered at Colorado State. It is awarded to an incoming or current graduate student. This year's award is $1,100.

Laurie Causer

Laurie Causer is a member of the Pi Theta Epsilon Honor Society and volunteers with the Adaptive Recreation Opportunities (ARO) program. She is also working on a thesis involving brain activity patterns. Laurie worked in the business field after receiving an undergraduate degree and plans to pursue a career as an occupational therapist, possibly with the Peace Corps.

Wanda Mayberry Scholarship

Wanda Mayberry was a professor in the Department of Occupational Therapy for 26 years before her retirement in 2000. Wanda taught, advised, and mentored students; developed courses and curricula; and served as acting department head. The scholarship was established by friends and colleagues of Wanda to pay tribute to her outstanding career. The scholarship is for students who have successfully completed level one fieldwork. Students from rural settings or who are non-traditional age students and/or ethnic minorities are encouraged to apply. This year's award is for $2,050.

Kim Chamberlain

Kim Chamberlain is the past recipient of the Simmons Memorial Scholarship. She attended Colorado State at Pueblo and received a Bachelor of Arts degree. Kim plans to pursue a career as an occupational therapist, working with older adults.

Merrill and Pauline Steele Memorial Scholarship

The Merrill and Pauline Steele Memorial Scholarship for $800 was established in 1990 by Russ and Carol Steele Kates in memory of Carol's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Steele were well known for assisting people with disabilities, and for over 60 years Steele's Markets continued this commitment through employment opportunities. The scholarship is based on academic excellence, need, and community service.

Amy Haslett

Amy Haslett volunteers with the Muscular Dystrophy Association Summer Camp and is a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society. She is a former recipient of the CSU Women's Association Scholarship and the Occupational Therapy Graduate Fellowship Award. Amy's career goals include becoming an occupational therapist and working with people who have severe disabilities.

Social Work

Ben Granger Distance Education Scholarship

The Ben Granger Distance Education Scholarship was established to honor retired director of Social Work, Ben Granger. Dr. Granger is responsible for developing and initiating the School's first distance education program in 1988 on Colorado's Western Slope. The award of $500 is given to undergraduate or graduate students enrolled in the School of Social Work distance education program with a minimum 3.0 GPA.

Jennifer Serio-Winders

Jennifer Serio-Winders is a former recipient of the Monfort Scholarship and the Granger Distance Education Scholarship. She volunteers with Feed the Children and Christmas for Kids. Jennifer works fulltime as a caseworker for the Department of Human Services while pursuing a Master's degree in Social Work. She plans to continue working in human services after completing her degree work.

Georgia and Ben Granger Human- Animal Bond In Colorado (HABIC) Scholarship

The Georgia and Ben Granger Human-Animal Bond In Colorado (HABIC) Scholarship was established in 1996 by Ben Granger, retired director of the School of Social Work, and his wife, Georgia. The award is given to undergraduate or graduate Social Work students who have an interest in the human-animal bond and the therapeutic use of companion animals. Applicants must have a minimum 3.0 GPA and desire a field placement where they can learn about animal-assisted therapy. This year's award is for $1000.

Allison Lewis

Allison Lewis is a member of the National Association of Social Workers and Psi Chi National Honor Society. She volunteers with HABIC and serves as secretary of the Student Masters in Social Work Association. She participated in AmeriCorps and plans to become a licensed clinical social worker and pursue a certificate in Marriage and Family Therapy.

Lawton Graduate Scholarship

The Lawton Graduate Student Scholarship for Social Work was established by Amy and John Lawton, long-time friends and donors to Colorado State, who have a profound interest in helping low-income and at-risk populations. They believe that scholarships in Social Work will help train students to professionally work with these populations and will help the future of at-risk families and youth in Colorado. The scholarship is given to Social Work graduate students who are Colorado residents and intend to work in Colorado upon completion of their graduate degree, maintain a minimum 3.0 GPA, and are interested in an area of Social Work benefiting the welfare of children. Two recipients share this year's award of $5,000.

Sara Greenberg	Sara Greenberg received a Bachelor of Arts degree in Women’s Studies from the University of Colorado. While attending CU she was the recipient of the Stephens Memorial Scholarship and the Coulter Scholarship. She volunteers at Rainbow Alley and plans to pursue a Ph.D. in clinical psychology after completing graduate school.
Laurie Sirotkin	Laurie Sirotkin volunteers with the Jewish Alliance for Justice and Peace and with the CHARG Resource Center. She received a Bachelor of Arts degree from the University of Colorado-Denver and is a former recipient of the Colorado Scholars Scholarship. She plans a career working with children and families in the area of neglect and abuse.
Richard G. Mimiaga Memorial Scholarship	The Richard G. Mimiaga Memorial Scholarship was established by colleagues, friends, and former students in honor of Rick’s work as a faculty member in Social Work. The $1,825 award goes to undergraduate or graduate students in Social Work who have financial need and demonstrate commitment to working with diverse populations. Underrepresented populations are encouraged to apply.
Dominga Martinez	Dominga Martinez received a Bachelor of Science degree from Michigan State University where she was recognized with several awards including the TOCE Scholarship and the Outstanding Academic Achievement Award. She volunteers with Big Brothers and Big Sisters and Into the Streets. Dominga’s career goal is to assist Chicano/Latino students become prepared for college.
Michael J. Schissler Memorial Scholarship	The Michael J. Schissler Memorial Scholarship was established by his wife, Elizabeth, in 1990. Michael, who died in 1989, was a 1970 Sociology graduate from Colorado State and was involved with social work issues. The $1,150 award is for undergraduate or graduate Social Work students, and is based on academic achievement, need, and community service work.
Natalie Tran	After receiving a degree in Social Work and Political Science, Natalie Tran plans to attend graduate school to pursue a Master’s degree in social work and then study for a law degree. She is a member of the Pre-Law Club and Social Work in Action. She volunteers with Mosaic and with the PASS Program as a mentor.
School of Social Work Scholarship	The School of Social Work Scholarship was established through special events proceeds, as well as through contributions from dedicated Social Work alumni, faculty, and staff. The $500 scholarship is awarded to an undergraduate or graduate student who is committed to the field of social work and who shows financial need.
Mary Bourbonnais	Mary Bourbonnais is a member of Navigators Christian Fellowship and volunteered with the Northern Colorado AIDS Project. She participates in undergraduate research and would like to pursue a career working with young pregnant women providing counseling, financial support, and education.